Please send one paragraph on how the telecom reform and governance process in your country/region will benefit from the issuance of an IDRC funded scholarship to you.

You must establish that your organization is either a non-profit, public-interest organization or that you are teaching/studying/conducting research. A short paragraph plus URLs that we can check are needed for this purpose (total of benefits and profile must be within one page). An official note from the head of your organization may be required.

Please note that the scholarship is worth approximately USD 2,500. Your presence will be required throughout the course. The scholarship does not include airfare to/from Singapore; transfers to from airport; and dinners other than on June 10th and 13th. It covers program tuition, reading and classroom material; accommodation for five nights (arrival June 10th, departure June 15th); 5 breakfasts (June 11-15); 4 lunches (June 11-14); refreshment breaks during the course and 2 dinners (June 10 and June 13).

Please return the completed application to Rohan Samarajiva, Executive Director, LIRNE*asia*, at samarajiva[at]lirne.net
